Come and hear Rev. J. H. Curry lecture tomorrow evening at the Baptist church. Mr. Curry is one of the most eloquent ministers in the state.

Several of our most important streets are sadly in need of new arc lights. They are entirely too dark. The city is prosperous—at least, the mayor's court brings in a good revenue. Why not have these lights?

Fifth annual session Second Bethlehem Baptist Association Sunday School Convention at Belleview, Fla., Sept. 6, 7, and 8, 1895. For the above occasion the F. C. & P. will sell round trip tickets to Belleview on Sept. 5, 6 and 7, at one and one-third fare, and on Sept. 8 from Ocala for 25 cents round trip, limited to Sept. 9, 1895. An elaborate program has been arranged for this occasion.

Capt. E. B. Richardson is down at Ozeo for a few days' recreation. Mrs. Richardson and Eddie are still down there, enjoying themselves catching fish and eating oysters.

Poverty is uncomfortable, as we all can testify; but, nine times out of ten, the best thing that can happen to a young man is to be tossed overboard and be compelled to sink or swim.

Rev. J. H. Curry will deliver an address under the auspices of the Ocala Temperance Reform Club at the Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Let everybody come and hear this able minister talk.

Day before yesterday the Florida Citizen devoted one-half page to the industries, prospects, improvements and society of Ocala and sent 800 sample copies down and had them distributed through the city.

Bertie Pearson, who has been spending his vacation with his parents in this city, left for college at San Antonio this week. This is his second year, and he was deservedly popular with his teachers and classmates.

A teacher, having told a pupil to buy a grammar, received the following note from the child's mother: "I do not desire for Lulu shal ingage in gramer as i prefur hur ingage in yousful studdys and can lurn her to speke and rite properly myself. i hav went threw too gramers and cant say thay did me no good i prefur hur ingage in jerman an drawin an vocal music on the pianner."

MUSIC AND DANCING.

Last night the metropolitan band gathered in the band stand and for more than an hour delighted the large crowd with their sweet music.

They played several pieces, among which "The Jolly Blacksmith" was the most beautiful.

The Ocala Rifles had a short impromptu dance in the Ocala House parlor, consisting of about a dozen couples, chaperoned by Mesdames Henry Livingston, jr., and R. B. McConnell.

They then repaired to the armory, where a delightful time was passed by all, dancing the quickstep and in social conversation.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

Miss Lizzie Edwards delightfully entertained her Sunday school class at her parents' residence on Magnolia street yesterday afternoon.

A spelling bee was the feature of the evening, and little Leafy Sylvester stood up the longest and secured the prize for the best speller, while Miss Johnny Liddon won the "booby" prize.

Delicious refreshments were served, after which the children departed for their homes, declaring Miss Lizzie was the sweetest teacher in the world.
